We are very excited to introduce you to the tennis professional joining us at Torview this summer:

David Clark, Senior Head Professional, USPTA

Dave offers a dynamic teaching style that blends the technical and psychological aspects of the game. He was formerly with the Saw Mill Club in Mt. Kisco and has been a Level One USPTA Professional since 2002. Dave has coached junior players from level 3 up through supernationals and has also been a popular and successful coach to USTA and MITL women's teams. He is a great motivator for all level players and will help you build a vision for your game while improving your fitness and match results.
